With a view to enquire into the alienations of devadaya inams and to make the inams standing in the name of defunct institutions available for similar institutions in working order either without or with inadequate funds, Government have passed an order for an exhaustive investigation into all such cases, and an Amildar has been specially appointed to investigate such cases in the Thirthahalli and Sagar taluks. The work to be done being partly investigation and partly of a general inquirial character. It should be understood is a case of the Muzrai Commissioner.

Subject No. 4 brought forward by Honnra. H. Chennabasappa of Holakalmuru and Patte Basappa of Thannionahalli for discussion at the Meeting of the Representative Assembly during Birthday Session of 1929.

Praying that a Committee consisting of the Amildar of the Taluk and four non-official Members may be appointed in each Taluk to investigate and suggest measures for the better improvement of the Devadaya Inam lands of all the villages in the State.

With a view to enquire into the alienations of Devadaya Inams and to make the Inams standing in the name of defunct Institutions available for similar institutions in working order either without or with inadequate funds, Government have passed an order for an exhaustive investigation into all such cases, and an Amildar has been specially appointed to investigate such cases in the Thirthahalli and Begar Taluks. The work to be done being partly investigation and partly of a quasi judicial character cannot be extended to a Committee.

There is no need for the appointment of a Committee.
